Trail Ride on the Santa Fe Trail

575-376-2035

Come to where the west still lives! Join us for a 3-day trail ride on the famous Santa Fe Trail. Enjoy the beauty of the great outdoors of New Mexico, sleep in the “Cowboy Bunkhouse”, and eat some of the best food you will ever taste!

Day 1—Learning the Ropes—After eating a hearty breakfast, you will go down to the barn and spend the morning learning the basics of how to saddle a horse and how to ride. In the afternoon you will get to practice what you have learned and enjoy some time in the arena, and then through the pasture riding your horse. You’ll be ready for a break at 5:00 and then dinner at 6:30. Bedtime will come soon and you’ll want to get a good night’s sleep for the next day.

Day 2—Experience History—After breakfast at 7:00 we will go to the barn and saddle the horses. Once you get on the trail you will take a walk through time. You’ll see wildlife, and the landmarks along the trail. You will have an experienced guide tell you about the event that took place at the landmark and take you back in time to the days of the West. You’ll hear stories about the difficulties faced by the travelers—all the way from rough terrain to battles with the Native American Indians. You’ll hear about the famous outlaws that came to this country to try to hide from the law—and you’ll hear about those that came to this country to make a new life. You will spend the night at one of the camps along the way that date back to those days. You’ll have a dinner that is reminiscent of the food from the West, then spend some time around a campfire singing the songs of the West. Bedtime will come early, because the next day is all all-day ride to the end of the trail.

Day 3—Finish the Ride— Day three will start early and will you will continue to ride the Santa Fe Trail up until around noon. You will arrive back at lodge in time to enjoy lunch and to bid farewell to your new friends—and make plans to meet again next year!

Our prices are great! Only $1450 per person for an all inclusive 4-night and 3-day adventure.

If you want even more fun, we will put together a custom package for more days that could include, fishing, trail riding, sporting clay shooting, a visit to the haunted historic St James Hotel, and hiking. Stay a few more days and take a tour through Red River, Taos, and Angel Fire (you’ll be on your own for this). Additional days of lodging can be provided to you at a cost of $100 a night in the bunkhouse—or treat yourself to the lodge for only $200 a night.

We must have at least 5 people committed to the fun, so bring your friends!
